COMPANY,
ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA.
CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighta of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to Lynchburg at 5.40, A. LOCAL ITEMS.

WASHINGTON ITEMS .- The Examination into the circumstances of the assault on Wednesday morning on the building of Mesers. Buell & Blanchard, in which the Republican headquarters have been held, was appointed to take place yesterday before Justice Donn. It was, however, postponed to Monday next, at 2 o'clock P. M. Some ten or twelve of the participants in this outrage are known, and will be brought to answer. At the Washington infant Asylum there are thirteen foundling children under care. thus saved from lives of destitution and perhaps ultimate ruin.

THE PANORAMA.-Dr. Kane's panorama of the Arctic regions is now on exhibition at Liberty Hall, and we advise those of our readers who have not as yet availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing it, to do so without delay, as we understand its proprietors do not contemplate a protracted stay in this city. THE CANAL .- A letter from the line of the canal received in this city, yesterday, says that a portion of the abutment at Dam No. 5 had been carried away by the recent freshet. A break in the canal had also been made near Williamsport, and a large number of sand bars formed in the vicinity of Dam No. 4. Navigation upon this portion of the line has been suspended. It will probably be resumed on the 20th of this month.

CIRCUIT COURT DOCKET .- The Circuit Court which opens in this city on Monday next, will have but a small civil docket .-The docket sometimes goes as high as three hundred chancery and common law cases. This year that docket will not exceed- one hundred and fifty cases. The commonwealth's docket will, also, be very small.
